I offer a safe space to

- be attentive to the sacred in everyday life.
- reflect on the movement and invitation of the Spirit.
- open to the Holy through the senses.
- discover and affirm one's own spiritual self.
- share with others.

I am open to working with persons of any faith tradition, spiritual but not religious, who are seekers.

A spiritual director has been called and affirmed as a spiritual guide. It is a privilege and a gift to be a companion on the journey.

Would a Spiritual Retreat be beneficial for you, for your group?

Short answer. Yes.

Some reasons:

You are

- ◆ hungering for meaning in life.
- ◆ wanting to be centered, have a foundation.
- ◆ desiring to be more attuned to the sacred self.
- ◆ seeking to nurture one's own spirituality.
- ◆ questioning one's faith or feeling disoriented
- ◆ hurting, lonely, sad, grieving
- ◆ in transition
- ◆ needing to make a decision

Generally, when a person requests a retreat we will meet to determine their needs. Then, I will spend time creating an experiential prayer time to meet those needs.
